Modern Slavery Statement for Long Tall Sally.

Long Tall Sally is a global retailer including the UK.

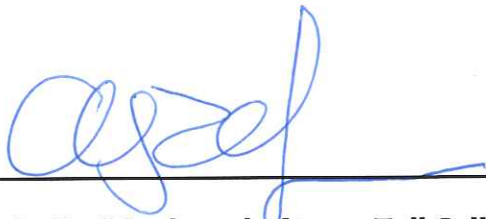

Long Tall Sally recognises the responsibilities it has, along with its suppliers, to operate in a ethical manner. As part of its responsibility, we acknowledge the requirements of the Modern Slavery Act 2015. Therefore Long Tall Sally is working to ensure that there is sufficient transparency both within the organisation itself, and within its supplier base.

In relation to its suppliers, Long Tall Sally has updated the service level agreements (SLA) that it has with its major suppliers in order to include a reference requiring compliance with the Modern Slavery Act 2015. The update to the SLA also includes a request that our suppliers comply with the Long Tall Sally Code of conduct and that they acknowledge the importance of compliance in relation to this area. Our supplier appraisal process has also been updated to consider what commitment and actions our suppliers are taking to comply with the Modern Slavery Act 2015.

Long Tall Sally wants its customers to be confident that both Long Tall Sally and its business partners treat their employees fairly, with respect for their human rights.

Long Tall Sally will not work with any organisation that either has or is found to be knowingly involved with either human trafficking or modern slavery.
